Cycling holiday in the best cycling country

We love cycling in Denmark, and cycling has increasingly also become a preferred form of exercise. This is reflected in our holiday and weekend plans, where both the men's trip and the family holiday are often moved out on the two-wheeler.

In collaboration with the travel company Danish Biking, Small Danish Hotels has established Danish Bike Hotels, which counts some of Denmark's most dedicated cycling hotels.

Here, cycling stays are offered to both exercisers and more hardcore cycling enthusiasts, and as a cycling guest you can be sure that cycling and pampering go hand in hand, and that you get the best combination: exercise and nature experiences on one hand, and pampering and the good hospitality on the other hand.
